There is an open door at the end of the road
through which each one must pass alone,
And therein light we cannot see,
Our Father claims his own Beyon the gate our loved one finds happiness and rest, and there is comfort in in the thought that a loving father knows bes

TO THOSE I LOVE
AND THOSE WHO LOVE ME

When I am gone, release me; let me go,
I have so many things to see and do.
You must not tie yourself to me with tears,
be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love - you can only guess how much you gave me in happiness.

I thank you for the love you each have shown;
But now, it is time I travelled on alone.
So, grieve a while for me, if grieve you must,
then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part,
so bless the memories with your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on;
so, if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see me or touch me I'll be near,
and if you listen with your heart you will hear
all of my love around you, soft and dear,
and then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and wave,
"WELCOME HOME"

APPRECIATION:

"The family gratefully acknowledges the many kind deeds and comforting expressions of sympathy extended during this period of bereavement"
